

scientific charts on the wall

acid-charred bench of chemicals broad window (one of two windows in the room) patriotic VR, done in bullet-pocks on wall opposite Holmes' arm chair stairs leading up to Watson's room (from which back yard is visible) and a lumber room

17 steps leading from Baker Street to Sherlock Holmes' first floor flat (second floor in American English)

221B BAKER STREET

Mrs. Hudson's room at the end of the hall (She also had a room downstairs) bottle of water on sideboard spirit case with bottles of brandy gasogene in front of spirit case

Framed picture of General Gordon unframed portrait of Henry Ward Beecher service revolver in top drawer of Watson's desk cupboard containing oranges small shelf of medical books above Watson's desk broad bow window facing Baker Street (one of two windows in the room)

scientific charts on the wall
acid-charred bench of chemicals
broad window (one of two windows in the room)
patriotic VR, done in bullet-pocks on wall opposite Holmes' arm chair
stairs leading up to Watson's room (from which back yard is visible) and a lumber room commonplace books
Holmes' desk
Holmes' stool stacks of paper

walking stick rack coat rack settee Persian slipper containing tobacco bearskin hearthrug lamp next to Holmes' arm chair Holmes' arm chair
reference books violin case in corner basket chair curtain between bow window and sitting room chair in bow window Watson's desk
sideboard Holmes' chair at breakfast table facing away from hearthrug pipe rack shelf next to Watson's chair containing the American Encyclopedia Holmes' arm chair

exit door leading from Holmes' bedroom down to the street photograph of Irene Adler unanswered correspondence transfixed by a jack-knife into the center of the mallepiece large tin box gramophone black and white ivory box on mantle coal scuttle cocaine bottle Holmes' bedroom pictures of celebrated criminals space behind head of Holmes' bed wax replica of Holmes' head second door and passage to Holmes' bedroom